Period for Reply

A SHORTENED STATUTORY PERIOD FOR REPLY IS SET TO EXPIRE 3 MONTH(S) OR THIRTY (30) DAYS, WHICHEVER IS LONGER, FROM THE MAILING DATE OF THIS COMMUNICATION.

- Extensions of time may be available under the provisions of 37 CFR 1.136(a). In no event, however, may a reply be timely filed after SIX (6) MONTHS from the mailing date of this communication.
- If NO period for reply is specified above, the maximum statutory period will apply and will expire SIX (6) MONTHS from the mailing date of this communication.
- Failure to reply within the set or extended period for reply will, by statute, cause the application to become ABANDONED (35 U.S.C. § 133). Any reply received by the Office later than three months after the mailing date of this communication, even if timely filed, may reduce any earned patent term adjustment. See 37 CFR 1.704(b).

DETAILED ACTION

Remarks

1. In response to communications filed on 16-November-2006, claims 1 and 2 are amended per applicant's request. Claims 1-21 are presently pending in the application, of which, claims 1, 6 and 13 are presented in independent form.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 101

2. 35 U.S.C. 101 reads as follows:

Whoever invents or discovers any new and useful process, machine, manufacture, or composition of matter, or any new and useful improvement thereof, may obtain a patent therefor, subject to the conditions and requirements of this title.

3. Claims 1 and 2 remain rejected under 35 U.S.C. 101 because the claims are directed to a non-statutory subject matter, specifically, directed towards an abstract idea.

The Supreme Court has repeatedly held that abstractions are not patentable. "An idea of itself is not patentable". Rubber-Tip Pencil Co. V. Howard, 20 Wall. 498, 07. Phenomena of nature, though just discovered, mental processes, abstract intellectual concepts are not patentable, as they are the basic tools of scientific and technological work Gottschalk v. Benson, 175 USPQ 673, 675 (S Ct 1972). It is a common place that laws of nature, physical phenomena, and abstract ideas are not patentable subject matter Parker v. Flook, 197 USPQ 193, 201 (S Ct 1978). A process that consists solely of the manipulation of an abstract idea is not concrete or tangible. See In re Warmerdam, 33 F.3d 1354, 1360, 31 USPQ2d 1754, 1759 (Fed. Cir. 1994).

Art Unit: 2165

See also Schrader, 22 F.3d at 295, 30 USPQ2d at 1459.

Claims 1 and 2 represent an abstract idea that does not provide a practical application in the technological arts. The claims do not appear to correspond to a specific machine or manufacturing process disclosed within the specification and thus encompasses any product of the class configured in any manner to perform the underlying process. Consequently, the claims are analyzed based upon the underlying process, and are thus rejected as being directed.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

4. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

5. Claims 1-2 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Sun Microsystems Inc., JavaHelp System User's Guide, June 2002 1-97 and referred to as JavaHelp hereinafter.

Art Unit: 2165

As to claim 1, JavaHelp teaches a helpset build method comprising:

preparing helpset information for building (i.e., HTML files) (page 35); building helpset files (i.e., building helpset jar files recursively) (page 47) and subhelpset files in an automatic recursive manner (see “subhelpset location of file” on page 42; see “subhelpset IMAGE” on page 43; see Merging Helpsets on pages 95-97); and reporting helpset status related information (page 52).

As to claim 2, JavaHelp teaches parsing gathered files; and identifying related helpsets (page 94).

Allowable Subject Matter

6. Claims 6-21 are allowed over the prior art made of record.
7. As previously stated, claim 3-5 remain objected to as being dependent upon a rejected base claim, but would be allowable if rewritten in independent form including all of the limitations of the base claim and any intervening claims.

Response to Arguments

8. Applicant's arguments filed on 16-November-2006 with respect to the rejected claims in view of the cited references have been fully considered but they are not deemed persuasive:

The Applicant's arguments regarding the rejection of claims 1 and 2 under 35 U.S.C. 101 have been fully considered but they are not deemed persuasive. The rejection is therefore, maintained by the Examiner.

Remarks and arguments regarding the rejection under 35 U.S.C. 102 for claim 1 are fully considered but are not deemed persuasive. The Applicant is directed to the remarks and discussions provided above in the rejection of claim 1 with respect to the newly added element of, "building subhelpset automatically and recursively" (see "subhelpset location of file" on page 42; see "subhelpset IMAGE" on page 43; see Merging Helpsets on pages 95-97.)

Applicant's remarks regarding rejected claim 2 have been considered but are not deemed persuasive in view of the remarks and discussions presented above for claim 1.

Conclusion

9. THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL. Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a).

A shortened statutory period for reply to this final action is set to expire THREE MONTHS from the mailing date of this action. In the event a first reply is filed within TWO MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period, then the shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed, and any extension fee pursuant to 37 CFR 1.136(a) will be calculated from the mailing date of the advisory action. In no event, however, will the statutory period for reply expire later than SIX MONTHS from the date of this final action.
